

Apply for a Gaelic Language Bursary

This bursary is for Nova Scotians who are interested in studying at Scotland's national centre for Gaelic language and culture, Sabhal Mòr Ostaig.

Photo Credit: Sabhal Mòr Ostaig

Eligibility

You can apply for funding if you are:

- A resident of Nova Scotia
- At least 18 years old
- Accepted into an eligible program at Sabhal Mòr Ostaig

Application deadline: March 2, 2026

How to apply

Contact Iain MacLeod at iain.macleod3@novascotia.ca, Program Specialist & Manager, Office of Gaelic Affairs.

How long it takes

It should take approximately 2 weeks to review your application and let you know if it is approved. It can take longer if more information is needed or if your application arrives incomplete.

Cost

There is no cost to apply. Applicants who receive a bursary are responsible for all costs to get to Sabhal Mòr Ostaig. Once on campus, your tuition, meals and accommodations are covered by the bursary.

Contact

Iain MacLeod
Program Specialist and Manager
Office of Gaelic Affairs
Iain.MacLeod3@novascotia.ca